

SGA business videos and live events - devised, driven and delivered

With 25 years of experience SGA is in pole position to help businesses get the most of their investment.

1. We'll get under the bonnet of what you want to achieve and use our creativity and drive to ensure you make the right decisions about what's needed.
2. We treat every opportunity as an exception – there's nothing standard or samey about the solutions we provide.
3. We'll deliver to your budget, and to ISO9001 quality standards.

What our clients say

"They are good at working around issues, and attention to detail – getting under the skin and thinking of everything." Greene King

"Thank you to you and your fantastic team for all the support provided in delivering a very successful conference. " Ford

"SGA delivers first time, every time." Genesis PR
